Introduction

Welcome to your Teacher's Notebook!

These sheets will provide you with tangible resources about each week's How I Teach.... episode that you can keep for yourself and often use with your students.

Here is what you need to know:

- 1) Each weekly set of sheets will be available at languageartsladyblog.com/howiteach with that week's episode, description, audio and video.
- 2) You can download the weekly sheets, print off anything to use in your classroom or with your students, and use in any non-commercial way you desire. (They are the intellectual property of Language Arts Lady.)
- 3) You can find more materials that coincide with that episode's topic at the end of each set of weekly sheets under the header Materials About This Topic to Purchase. These are mostly downloads that you can purchase inexpensively and use to teach skills you are learning from Language Arts Lady!
- 4) You may also desire to print off the entire Teacher's Notebook booklet (updated each month) so that you have all the sheets from the episodes to date all together (rather than a few sheets at a time). You can access the whole Teacher's Notebook booklet here: languageartsladyblog.com/teachersnotebook

I want so many good things for you and your students!

Love and hope,

How I Teach....

Christmas Preposition
Practice

Student Sheets and Answer Keys

About This Book

Aboard, about, above. along, among, around....

Whether students sing them, recite them, chant them, rap them, or write them...prepositions are important.

I learned them in chant-like form when I was in school. However, I never knew WHY I needed to learn them.

This book will teach kids prepositions—in a way that focuses on the WHY, that is, what prepositions really do!

AND with the fun story line of the beloved Beauty and the Beast characters.

Our kids (and we!) need to learn prepositions for a few important reasons:

- (1) They are the beginning of prepositional phrases--the most common phrases in writing.
- (2) Prepositional phrases can be mentally eliminated from a sentence in order to get to the bare bones of the sentence...since the sentence's main subject and main verb are not usually found in prepositional phrases, This concept is imperative for subject-verb agreement solutions.
- (3) Prepositional phrases are good to use as openers—especially lengthy ones—as they vary sentence structure and rhythm.

I'm all about songs, jingles, rhymes, recitation, and mnemonics for learning parts of speech (and really anything).

(My books are full of them---FANBOYS for coordinating conjunctions; Be, a Helper, Link Verbs song; Preposition Check Sentences; Subordinate Clause Opener rhyme; and much more!)

However, when prepositions are learned in songs or recitations, the real reasons for prepositions are overlooked. (Not to mention that they learn about thirty of the over two hundred prepositions....not enough memorized preps to adequately recognize them in sentences and use them for sentence openers!)

That is, students can chant a long list of words, but they do not know how to use them.

Enter this Christmas Preposition Practice! I use tricks. I use check sentences. I even use toys—Rudolph or Santa AND a picture of clouds to cut in order to teach prepositions (and practice them).

Preposition Practice Pals

Students can use either the black and white or the colored ones (a large clouds picture and some beloved characters from the tale of Santa Claus and reindeer).

Consider how much faster it will be for your kids to learn prepositions with these learning tools:

Rudolph flew _____ the clouds.

1. aboard - Rudolph flew aboard the clouds.
2. about - Rudolph flew about the clouds.
3. above - Rudolph flew above the clouds.
4. across - Rudolph flew across the clouds.
5. across from - Rudolph flew across from the clouds.
6. behind the clouds - Rudolph flew behind the clouds.
7. below the clouds - Rudolph flew below the clouds.
8. beneath the clouds - Rudolph flew beneath the clouds.
9. beside the clouds - Rudolph flew beside the clouds.
10. by the clouds - Rudolph flew by the clouds.

But all of the methods within this Christmas Preposition Practice have one thing in common: they focus on the PURPOSE of the preposition—to show spatial relationships or time.

This 90+ page downloadable book has seventeen lessons (with student assignments) introducing prepositions in a systematic order:

- Initial letter
- With the clouds and characters
- As opposites
- As synonyms
- As compound words
- With time
- More

This book also has a jam-packed Appendix section:

Appendix A: Colored and Black and White clouds and Santa/reindeer Pictures to Use for Student's Preposition Practice Pal

Appendix B: Think Fast Quiz Preposition Practice for Beginning and Intermediate Students With Categories

Appendix C: Think Fast Quiz Preposition Practice for Beginning and Intermediate Students Without Categories

Appendix D: Preposition Category Cards

Appendix E: Think Fast Quiz Preposition Practice for Advanced Students

Appendix F: Complete Preposition Lists in Categories and in Total (over ten pages of preposition lists!)

When you use this packet, your student will learn prepositions by the boatload—but they will also learn them for their purpose—and have fun as they do!

Tips for Using This Product

There are many ways to use this product in grades two through eight. Before I get into those details, some notes about the layout of the product:

1. There are 17 lessons—and each new lesson starts at the top of a page with a large banner stating the lesson number and the subject matter of that lesson.
2. Student Worksheet pages are within each lesson. However, for the teacher, tutor, or co-op leader who is not able to print this entire book for each student, the Student Worksheets start at the top of a new page within each of the seventeen lessons. This makes it such that the teacher can print the entire document for herself but just print the Student Worksheet pages for that lesson for her students.
3. The Appendix is chock-full and is valuable almost as a stand alone product in itself! Don't disregard these amazing, useful pages.

Suggestions for Use:

- While the book itself can look overwhelming, it is not only possible but also suggested that the teacher just use one lesson per week. Open up your complete teacher document to that week's lesson, do the "lesson" verbally and on the board, practicing that preposition clue together. Then pass out the Student Worksheet for that lesson and have students do it in class where you are available to answer questions and cue them when they get stuck.
- Once a lesson/clue is taught, you may also desire to use that lesson's Student Worksheets every other day that week as a bell ringer or opening class assignment (or even a station or homework sheet).
- After you have completed some of the lessons and students have many prepositions under their belts (along with the various clues up to that point), you may desire to use the Preposition Think Fast Grammar Quizzes provided in the Appendix for further practice (or homework).
- Watch for my Preposition Poster Pack from my Parts of Speech Posters. These will have all of the clues on posterettes and reference rings/notebook sheets to keep the clues in the front of students' minds.
- Be sure to print all of the preposition lists with all of the categories provided in the Appendix for yourself. For older students, you may desire to print these and put them in binders as well.
- Have students keep their PPP (Preposition Practice Pal—their character and clouds) in a zipper type bag in their desk so that they can get them out to practice their prepositions any time.

Note: If you like the Christmas Preposition Practice, you will love the complete Think Fast Grammar Quiz and Answer Key. There are two of these to choose from (Beginning and Advanced). Also check out my General Preposition Practice that uses a plane and clouds or my Beauty and the Beast Preposition Practice that uses a character from the book and a large castle--and my darling new preposition product for elementary kids with hands-on, sticking-on-lady-bugs, called Bugs on a Log.
